CDC’s 2011 Sustainability Forum
Transportation, Public Health, and Sustainability: from Research to Practice

Join us for presentations and a discussion on incorporating health in transportation planning and sustainable community design. Transportation systems impact diverse public health outcomes and this special session will explore opportunities for health promotion through active living, injury prevention, and air quality.

Date: Wednesday, November 16, 2011   Time: 1:00pm – 2:30pm
Location: CDC Chamblee Campus, Building 106 Room 1B
Address: 4770 Buford Highway, Chamblee, GA 30341

Arthur Wendel, MD, MPH
Healthy Community Design, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

CDR Arthur M. Wendel, MD, MPH is team lead of the Healthy Community Design Initiative, National Center for Environmental Health, Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). He is a board-certified physician in family medicine and preventive medicine, and he is a graduate of CDC’s Epidemic Intelligence Service. Dr. Wendel's interests include building healthy communities and transportation systems.

Leslie Meehan, AICP
Nashville Area Metropolitan Planning Organization

Leslie Meehan is a senior transportation planner for the Nashville Area Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO). She specializes in transportation policy, planning and education for bicyclists and pedestrians with a focus in the relationship between the built environment, transportation and health. Leslie is a member of the American Institute of Certified Planners and the Institute of Transportation Engineers.

Registration is required*: Please click HERE to register. For additional information please contact Thayra Riley at 404-639-7791, uzt1@cdc.gov or Katie Sobush at 404-639-0161, ghk5@cdc.gov.

*Persons who are not badge-holders of CDC/ATSDR must register no later than November 9, 2011 for security clearance to enter the Chamblee Campus for this event. Please use the registration link above to register. Also note that persons who are not US citizens should plan to register through the link above a no later than November 1, 2011. Unfortunately, visitors who fail to register in advance may be denied entrance to CDC/ATSDR. Please plan accordingly.

This event is brought to you by the Office of Sustainability, the Buildings and Facilities Office, the Office of the Associate Director for Program, the National Center for Environmental Health and Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry, the National Center for Chronic Disease Prevention and Health Promotion, the National Center for Injury Prevention and Control, and the Office of Safety, Health and the Environment.